Platform
Connection
Requirements

An execution platform needs to expose two things:

1. The ability to trade as an end user, i.e. logging on via a mobile app as the trader and trading, an example is a mobile trading application
2. The ability to trade on behalf of any user on a particular server. An example schematic can be seen below.

Please note that Pelican currently connects with MT4 & 5, cTrader and DX Trade.